

Confidentiality agreement

Miele & Cie. KG
Carl-Miele-Straße 29
33332 Gütersloh

and have established initial business contacts.

In the interests of all parties and to facilitate disclosure of detailed information concerning business plans, the parties involved agree to the following confidentiality measures:

1. The undersigned undertakes to keep secret all documents as well as about electronic media made available data and other information received from Miele including expertise, company-confidential matters or business plans and not to make this information accessible to third parties.
2. This obligation to secrecy continues to apply even if it should become clear that a cooperation is no longer a feasible option. In this case, the undersigned must, at Miele's request, immediately return all documents provided by Miele.
3. Should a cooperation be agreed upon, the parties will sign a confidentiality agreement which renders this agreement invalid.

Location, Date

Signature